

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

'Jephcott Associates have given us one outstanding candidate after another. They have completely exceeded my expectations on all counts. I cannot recommend them highly enough.' – Call Centre Client

'Jephcott Associates were tasked with filling two positions for us, one of them not an easy one. They were thoroughly professional in their approach, followed up regularly and presented us with an array of high quality candidates. David's background meant he had a very good understanding of our needs and he was a delight to work with. I thoroughly recommend Jephcott Associates as a consultancy for Events & Marketing staff.' – Marketing Agency Client

'Jephcott Associates not only take the time but make a real effort to get to know and understand your business to enable them to fully service your requirements. They understand the importance of providing consistently high quality professional service, are honest and 100% reliable.' – IT Services Client

'Jephcott Associates, in my experience, is one of the most professional recruitment firms in the marketplace. It is refreshing to deal with people who invest time understanding our specific needs and provide guidance through all stages of the recruitment process. David Jephcott provided high level attention and high quality candidates. He made our recruitment experience enjoyable and educational.' – Contract Catering Client

'You took the time to understand my needs, ask questions, made suggestions of how to structure the role and the team. We appointed a great candidate who is a terrific asset to the team!' – Accountancy Client

CANDIDATE TESTIMONIALS

'Thank you so much for everything you've done. This has been the most positive recruitment experience I've ever had.' – Sarah, Graphic Designer

'I would just like to thank you for your assistance and proactiveness during this time. Out of all my dealings with recruitment agents throughout the years you have certainly stood out above the rest.' – Alan, Sales Director

'David Jephcott is an absolute star. I cannot recommend him highly enough to candidates. He has an unrivalled knowledge of UK professional services markets. Whilst other recruiters were debating my skills, David was proactively organising interviews for me. Don't waste your time on large recruitment firms - if you want a job then Jephcott Associates is the only recruiter to use!' – Rachael, Business Analyst

'My experiences with Jephcott Associates have been excellent. They show a real understanding of your needs regarding career progression, and their efforts in finding you the perfect position are second to none.' – Nicola, Graduate Trainee

'Jephcott Associates immediately impressed me as a candidate friendly and understanding firm to work with. The service was second to none and they worked very hard to match my expectations of a role and not just feed me the role they wanted to give me. This sets them way above their contemporaries in the Thames Valley market and I will definitely keep them in mind when I next look for a role. Though as they got me such a fantastic role, it may be some time...!' – Robert, Financial Controller

'I've recently had the pleasure of entrusting David and Jephcott Associates with assisting me in securing the next step in my career. David is a delight to deal with and his friendly disposition and professional approach were invaluable when considering the various stages of the job search and transition to a different firm. I would have no hesitation in recommending David to colleagues who are considering a career move or for a simple evaluation of their options.' – Rebecca, Governance Administrator

'A breath of fresh air in recruitment - David Jephcott delivers a superb service. He provides pragmatic advice; is a steadfast negotiator and, unlike many larger agencies, maintains his friendly and caring disposition at all times. I would have no hesitation in recommending him to individuals or firms seeking recruitment advice and services.' – Deepak, IT Manager
